

ASSOCIATION for MODERN GERMAN STUDIES

24 th September, 2003

Dear Member,

Please find enclosed the final details of this year's Focus on Skills Conference, which will take place at the Goethe Institut London on Saturday, 15th November. Please register as soon as possible as we expect at least as much interest as last year when we had to turn people away.

Please also note the following:

1. All paid up AMGS members will only pay the concessionary rate of £30 (not £50!). This includes lunch at the Polish Club! Please indicate your AMGS membership clearly on your registration slip which you will have to return to Adam Salisbury, UCL Language Centre, no later than 5 November! (It will not be easy to reimburse you once you have sent your cheques to AS.)
2. The Association of Modern German Studies will hold its Annual General Meeting at the Goethe Institut from 5 - 6 pm after the Panel discussion. We hope many of you will be able to attend. Some of you might even be willing to join the AMGS Panel as we are in need of ideas and support. We only meet three times during the year but keep regular email contact on important issues. The Agenda of the AGM and other details will be available on the day.
3. Due to the very great interest expressed for our next conference, Transformationsprozesse in den Neuen Bundeslaendern, we have decided to extend this event to Sunday, thus making it into a two day conference to be held at the Goethe Institut on 24/25th April 2004.

We are looking forward to seeing you again at one or two or even at all three forthcoming events.

With good wishes and kind regards

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads 'Ingrid H.J. Williams.' The signature is written in black ink on a light-colored background.

Christine Hoffmann and Ingrid Williams.